Doug and Sharon Scott

SCOTTS ARE NEW OWNERS OF SUDBURY INN

Doug and Sharon Scott are the new owners of the Sudbury Inn and are two very happy innkeepers because the people of the town and the area have made them feel so welcome. After vacationing in Maine for many years they knew that it was the place to settle, and that the pleasures and rewards of serving fine food, providing warm hospitality, and a place to gather on a cold night in winter or a hot night in summer, were exactly what they wanted.

Having lived in the Midwest all their lives, their first taste of New England was in their college and Army years. It was love at first sight, so after years in television production for Doug, and social work for Sharon, they wanted to strike out on their own and Maine was the natural place to settle. They feel that Bethel is the perfect size community to get acquainted with a lot of people and to offer them the type of place that anyone can come and feel at home whether for drinks, dinner, lunch, breakfast or lodging. And the mountains and forests are particularly thrilling for them after the flat lands of Indiana.

They look forward to the winter for some new experiences in learning to ski, and to the summer activities that keep the inn bustling along. In addition to some new recipes and being open year round, they are serving lunch daily except Sunday when they have breakfast dishes from 10-2. Dinner during the week, the popular Saturday night buffet, and Sunday supper "soup and sandwiches" round out their meal hours. Entertainment on Saturday nights, dorm rooms for skiers, continuing the "happy hour", and celebrations of Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's are planned.

FALL ATHLETIC BANQUET HELD AT TELSTAR WEDNESDAY EVENING

The fall athletes at Telstar Regional High School held their Awards Banquet and Assembly Wednesday evening at Telstar. Over 250 athletes and their parents participated in the event, which honored the outstanding performances of athletes at Telstar during the fall sports season. Dr. Wayne F. Gersen, principal, acted as master of ceremonies for the event, welcoming the parents and introducing the coaches.

Coaches Dan Hannon and Peter Brown did not win a state championship, but did develop a solid nucleus of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors for their future years. Although the squad finished 3-4, both Mr. Hannon and Mr. Brown expressed a belief that football will rebound in the coming years. The coaches awarded letters to 17 athletes, with Russell Palmer, Mike Rosenberg, and Mike Brooks receiving trophies for most improved, best defensive, and most valuable player respectively. A special award was presented to Quentin Tyler, the only senior member of the squad.

The girls hockey squad won the State Class C Championship and Mrs. Ellen Durgin described the girls' road to the championship. She presented letters to 12 athletes and presented trophies to Terry Wright as Outstanding Defensive Player, Rachael Mills as Most Improved Player, and Manya Domokowski as Most Valuable Player. Mrs. Arlene Greenleaf commended the JV squad for its steady improvement during the season, and awarded 26 participation awards to her girls for their efforts.

In addition to the State Championship, the girls hockey squad won the Sportsmanship award from the Central Maine Women's Coaches and Officials Organization. This award signifies that Telstar girls demonstrated a respect for the rules of the game, a positive attitude for the game, and displayed the best sportsmanship of any of the 42 squads evaluated by the coaches and officials.

John Apple, the cross country coach, praised his State Championship squad for their second straight cross country crown. He presented awards to Mike Morrill as Rookie Runner of the Year, Mike Friel as Most Improved Runner, and Pat Friel as Most Valuable Runner. There were 12 letter winners in cross country. The cheerleaders, who boosted morale through wins and losses, rain or shine, were honored by their dedicated leader, Miss Cheryl Lord. Miss Lord presented awards to co-captains Rhonda and Rachael Cummings and a most dedicated cheerleader award to Dawn James.

MEETING OF S. A. D. 44 PANEL HELD MONDAY AT TELSTAR

The M. S. A. D. #44 board of directors met at Telstar Regional High School on Monday evening of this week.

Gerald Durgin, coach of boys varsity basketball at Telstar, voiced his concerns about practice sessions for his team. The time schedule calls for the boys varsity and J.V. squads to practice from 6:30 to 8:30 in the evenings, after bus transportation has ceased for the day. He believes that the circumstances would tend to discourage young boys (freshmen and sophomores) from trying for the teams, as well as players from the towns of some distance from Telstar. The Middle School boys and girls teams are scheduled to practice daily from 2:05 to 3:30; girls varsity and J.V. from 3:30 to 5:00.

Representing the Telstar student body at the session were Priscilla Webster and Blaine MacKay, both of whom are very active in the extra curricular activities of the school. They spoke of the success of the cross country and field hockey teams and the on-going activity of the Student Council and commented favorably on the general atmosphere of the functioning of the school under the guidance of Dr. Wayne Gersen.

Telstar Middle School Principal Walter Phillips reported that the Open House held on Oct. 28 was a success with from 150 to 200 parents attending. Michael Gilbert, Crescent Park School teaching principal, reported there had been another break at the school. On Oct. 30 a window was removed, the building entered, a filing cabinet damaged, another one opened, but nothing was removed. There was a monetary loss of 50 cents, not including the damage done to the filing cabinets.

Miss Marjorie Howell was named as Title I teacher at the Telstar Middle School. She will assist Middle School students who have reading and math problems. Miss Howell received her B.A. in education from Eastern Michigan University and has done graduate work at the University of Michigan and Boston University. She has had three years of teaching experience as a reading teacher in Michigan in both developmental and remedial reading. She also continued on Page Five

COLD WEATHER PROTECTION URGED BY STATE POLICE

With falling temperatures, frost on the ground, and earlier darkness, the Maine State Police advise motorists now is the time to begin protecting their vehicles against possible misfortune during the colder months.

"It's just plain smart to look ahead and plan ahead by winterizing a vehicle ahead of the really stormy days, rather than be caught with a battery down, radiator not protected by anti-freeze, and with out snow tires and chains," said Allan H. Weeks, Chief of the Maine State Police.

Now is the time for a change—in radiator protection, in oil and grease, in tires. Defroster, heater and tire chains suddenly become important as the intelligent driver anticipates winter's challenges.

According to Col. Weeks, "Knowing that blustery days are coming, and that last minute rush for winterizing always jams garages and service stations, the thinking person acts in advance and gets his vehicle attended to during the lulls before the storms."

Small investments in safe automotive equipment pays off in big dividends when the snowy season starts, emphasized the Maine State Police Chief, as he hinted that a change in driving habits is in order too, as motorists face many weeks of cold rain, moisture laden snow, sleet and ice.

Gradual starts and stops, longer intervals between vehicles, signaling well in advance of turning, cautious passing, and alertness for pedestrians who may slip or falter are the marks which distinguish the "truly good driver" from one who becomes an accident victim as a result of not making these adjustments before the first snow falls, he said.

"A vehicle in good shape, driven by a safety-minded driver, will collect dividends in peace of mind for oneself, comfort for passengers and will be the finest possible insurance against colliding with fellow road users," said Col. Weeks.

dogs and punch will be served after the raking is done.

Rev. and Mrs. Wuori and family were surprised by a "one year anniversary" party after church put on by the choir. Mrs. Leatrice Myhrall made the lovely cake; Judy Richardson, sandwiches, and Bertha Summerton and Beverly Swan, brought coffee cakes.

The Flowers in the Church Sunday, Nov. 6, were in memory of Mrs. Bita Perkins. Greeters for Nov. 13 will be Mrs. Arvilla Feener and Donna French.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnston spent the week end visiting with their daughter and family, Sfc. and Mrs. Dennis Kerschner in Merrimack, N. H. They attended a Square Dance of the Heel and Toe Square Dance Club of Bedford, N. H.

A Century Ago

November 6, 1877:
East Bethel — Our farmers are now making preparations for winter, with their crops, which were good, all harvested. The corn crop this year was better than it has been for a long time, and it so happened that our farmers by the way of being shy of the potato bug planted more corn than common, and therefore we are well supplied with that indispensable article.

Our potato crop was cut down about one-third on account of rust, and rot. Have not heard many complaints of rotting since they were put in cellars. Our potato buyer T. P. Blake, will commence buying next week.

The grain was all good, especially wheat. A larger quantity of wheat was raised in this section of town than has been before for a long time. Who knows but what hard times will prove to be a good thing for our farmers, as it will force them to form the habit of sowing more wheat, which they have neglected for the past few years.

The fall schools are now in session. The one in District No. 6 is taught by Miss Fannie O. Brown of Mason, District No. 8, F. D. Bartlett. The two schools have organized a lyceum. First meeting was held last Thursday evening, and notwithstanding the snow storm a good time was had. It was voted to have lyceum meetings once a week during the term.

There is to be a series of religious meetings at this place, commencing Nov. 6. They are to be conducted by Dr. Estes of Portland.

Among those from Bear River Evening Extension Group, Newry, who attended the 10th Annual Open House, Oxford County Extension, Saturday, were Karlene Bachelder, Elnelyn Wight, Persis Post, Sylvia Wight, Louise Tetley, and Lynda Hasegala.

Mrs. Louise K. Tetley, Town Treasurer, has received a check in the amount of $17,755.83 as a refund for loss in taxes under the Tree Growth Tax Law for the years 1975 and 1976.

In October a short term loan was negotiated for $15,000 to pay for the new Highway Department truck. This note was paid Friday. Wilfred LeVitt of the State Bureau of Taxation met with the Assessors Monday morning to audit the claim for reimbursement for the 1977 loss, which was filed in September.

Under the original law, payment of this claim would have been made in the fall of 1978. Under a bill introduced by Karen L. Brown, Arthur E. Gauthier reported three deer tagged at the local inspection station on the opening day of the season, with seven bear since the first of June.

Bear River Grange will meet Nov. 12, for a regular meeting. Refreshments will be served.

BARRACKS & AUXILIARY #2943

The Barracks and Auxiliary #2943 met at the Legion Rooms on Vernon St., Nov. 2, for their regular monthly meeting. A pot luck dinner at noon with 24 seated at the table. Carroll Valentine asked the blessing. After dinner speakers were John Head and Stanley Howe, who gave a very interesting talk on their recent trip to France. They were guests of Rotarians of France. The talks were accompanied by slides which were very interesting.

President Mary Bishop opened the business meeting and usual business was transacted. Four officers were absent and the offices filled by other members appointed by President Bishop. Leona Curtis was presented with a pendant and chain from Thelma Wilson, the National Department Membership Chairman from Green Island, N. Y., for her reports sent in each month during the membership drive for 1976.

It was voted to have the Christmas Party at the Dec. 7 meeting. The dinner will be turkey and all the fixins that go with it. There will be an exchange of presents and a Christmas tree Committee is Hilda Donahue, Doris Cornell and Leona Curtis. The Barracks Buddies will join the Auxiliary in this celebration.

A report of the Council meeting was read by Frances Bennett which was in Brewer at the Twin City Motel. A silent auction netted a goodly sum, also towels were given out to make bibs for Togus V. A. Hospital and beanies are being knit for the patients that can go out doors.

Sunday and a rainy one. This morning on the early weather report, it said that today was going to be kind of bad and then downhill from then on. I don't know how long they meant; but the 1978 Farmer's Almanac said that November weather in New England was going to be 2° below average. It also said that first to the fourth were going to be cold so maybe the rest will be off.

Mrs. Leslie Lapham had Mrs. Mary Grover and friend of Springvale, Maine, as Monday afternoon visitors.

Ida and Frank Chapman spent the week end in Stoneham and went to the official opening of Evergreen Valley, Rupert Aldrich of Norway is now sole owner of this resort and this is his opening.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Smith and Shawn of Fryeburg were Saturday evening guests of his parents and family, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr.

Kerry Smith from Lebanon, N. H., stopped in on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., Monday morning before they left for work.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tyler of Elliot, Maine, visited her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Saunders, Saturday evening.

Not too much going on as with Saturday being the first day of hunting for Maine residents only most of the hunters took to the woods. Also the flu is still going the rounds.

Bruce Smith was up Saturday to go hunting with his brothers, Doug and Dennis. I didn't hear that they got one; but Larry got a buck, Victor Coolidge and Frank Gibson also got one the first day.

The Smiths, Labans, Frank and Gerry have all heard the sound of some animal and none of them can place the sound. The Labans could just make out an outline one night in their yard; but, could not see what it was.

Monday morning I left for Readfield, Maine, to visit my sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Tucker, Jr., and family. They had moved from Mt. Vernon the two days before. Tuesday on the way home I went by my brother's and wife in Canton and as they were home I stopped and had supper with them.

Thursday, my folks, Mr. and Mrs. George Allen and aunt, Sarah Andrews, from Albany visited. My folks were up again Sunday, also Don Holden, Norway.

Homer Smith Jr. is celebrating his birthday Monday.

Ms. Sally Clay, who is a proof reader at the Norway Advertiser-Democrat, was up to the Berlin Reporter office this last week. The Berlin Reporter is printed at the Advertiser office. Ms. Clay was telling how important to these weekly local papers that the small town local correspondents are. Of course, I realize to the big daily papers we are kind of gossip.

Gerry Shimamura has gone to Locke Mills to help the John Mills move their beds, bedding, etc.

I suppose tomorrow morning that Barbara MacDougall is taking me up to Rumford Community Hospital. Am scheduled to go into surgery Tuesday morning; but should be back home Wednesday. Barbara has an appointment in Rumford for that day.

John Laban saw a bear up in his apple trees one day. It was a little spring cub. He was sitting on the ground putting apples into his lap and then eating them.

"No one ever injured his eyesight by looking on the bright side of things."

EXPRESSION OF THANKS

To all of you who so willingly assisted by your gifts of food, support, comfort, and general benevolence, we wish to extend our most grateful and humble thanks. Your participation in such an hour of deep and abiding grief has lightened our awesome burden of loss.

David would be remarkably proud of such fidelity and devoted concern.

God bless all of you on his behalf, and our unending thanks to so many who contributed so much in the midst of such a travail.

GOULD EXCHANGE PROGRAM IN TENTH YEAR

For the last 10 years Gould Academy has provided an opportunity for its students to spend one or two terms abroad in France, Germany or Mexico. This exchange also brings students from those countries to Maine where they usually stay for the entire school year in one of the Academy's dormitories.

This interchange gives the Gould community an international atmosphere, particularly when these exchange students are added to those already attending from other countries such as Japan, Hong Kong, Saudi Arabia, Iran, the Bahamas, and Bermuda.

The Gould students spend a term overseas, live with a family in that country and attend the local school. This gives them a marvelous opportunity to learn the language, something about the nature of the people, their culture and their history; as well as being able to travel throughout the country visiting important cities and areas. If understanding comes from the interchange of ideas and the chance to see how others live, then the exchange program must be rated a success.

The foreign students at Gould do not return home for the short vacation periods, but spend this time visiting various parts of America, or staying with one of the families of a friend or a roommate. The latter affords them the same opportunity to observe and learn just as the school's American students are doing overseas.

Currently, Gould has six exchange students—four from Germany and one each from France and Mexico. Three American students, Jennifer Ash, West Dover, Vt.; Lisa Labnon, Conway, N. H.; and David Polstein, Augusta, are in France and will return to Bethel after the Thanksgiving holidays.

At this time six more Gould students will travel to Germany, France and Mexico to spend the winter term. The program is available to all Gould students who have shown an ability in a foreign language and an interest in participating. Usually these are seniors or juniors who are in good academic standing, and who can afford the time spent away from their basic studies. Although they attend schools in the country where they are staying, it is difficult to relate exactly academic programs between the two schools.

With Gould's program of term courses this difficulty is minimized as a return student is able to start new courses at the beginning of each term. Credit is given to Gould students for foreign language and history, so that they are not penalized academically by taking advantage of the opportunity.

The majority of students who have taken part in the exchange program are united in their praise and are very thankful that they had the opportunity to act as an ambassador, in their own small way, for Gould Academy and the U. S. A. In a similar vein Gould looks forward each year to those students joining the student body and to what they can contribute to the Academy.

GOULD TO SPONSOR
SKI RACING TRAINING CAMP
NOV. 19-23

Gould Academy, in conjunction with the Sunday River Racing Program, is sponsoring a Ski Racing Training Camp to be held Nov.
19-23. The program will be conducted on snow at Sunday River with room and board being provided at Gould Academy. Camp Coordinator Robert Harkins of Gould Academy, expects a participation of 70-80 athletes for the five days.

The camp is structured to provide on-snow training for skiers 12 years and older of all abilities.
Emphasis will be placed on improving the individual's technical skills thru fundamental drills and exercises. Gate training in slalom and giant slalom will also be stressed, as well as downhill techniques if snow conditions permit.

Video-tape and super 8 filming will be used to enable the skier to see himself and pick out his own mistakes. Other training aides such as the trampoline and exercise room will be utilized at Gould Academy during evening sessions.

The camp boasts a very competent coaching staff. Among them are: Robert Harkins, Gould Academy, head coach; Beonta-Advisory Staff; Leslie Orton, Gould

Academy, Women's Coach; Tom
Reynolds, UMF Head Alpine
Coach, K2 Advisory Staff; Jim Warner, Head I & II Coach, Titcomb Educational Foundation; Bill
Allen, UMF Head Women's Coach;
Scott Parker, Coach, Sunday River Racing Program.

Sunday River's ability to make snow top to bottom in the early season makes the camp possible.
Participating competitors will receive a head start over everyone else and benefit by early season coaching. Poor technique can be corrected before it becomes a habit. The camp is scheduled to begin on Saturday, Nov. 19, at 9 a. m.

with registration at the Gould Academy Field House. Pre-registration is necessary through Robert Harkins at Gould Academy, Bethel. Cost of the overall program includes room and two meals per day, lift ticket and coaching.
Alternate plans are available.

VETERANS DAY 1977

Daniel E. Lambert,
State Adjutant
The American Legion

Veterans' Day 1977 takes on greater significance when considered in a context which includes its origin and the current "trial balloons" calling for major changes affecting the nation's program of veteran benefits.

Throughout the United States
there are about 28 million Americans—men and women—who have served honorably in the uniform of our country during one or more of the wars of the Twentieth Century. They have written chapters of history underscored with valor in thousands of obscure places throughout the world.

In the finest tradition as set forth by our founding fathers, these gallant Americans have served their nation. Through their performance of duty, they have fulfilled the greatest obligation of their citizenship.

But the service of these citizen-soldiers to their country and to mankind did not end with the exchange of military uniform for civilian clothing. America's veterans have demonstrated an examplary stability and responsibility in our society, reflecting their great respect for the heritage of their citizenship.

As we depart from our daily routine to observe Veterans' Day, let us consider how we, as Americans, can honor those who have served our nation.

First and foremost, we can respond simply by being Americans —Americans who are alert—Americans who are not afraid to face the challenges confronting our nation—Americans who will express in completely understanding terms and actions their support of reasonable and effective solutions to those problems.

At the same time, we should reaffirm that our nation's strength and greatness rests on a foundation that declares "veteran" is an honorable word.

As an expression of its gratitude for the sacrifice of veterans in preserving our heritage, this nation has established and maintained a program of benefits —medical, hospital, educational, compensatory, etc. — appropriate to the veteran's respective service contribution.

Now, there are proposals to destroy this concept established by a grateful and proud nation.

This Veterans' Day should remind us that, thanks to those who answered their country's call, this nation has endured periods of trial, peril and despair. We can give even greater meaning to the day by advising our Representatives and our Senators that America's spirit of justice demands that there be no threats to the integrity of the nation's program of benefits for veterans.

CONTINENTAL TELEPHONE FILES TARIFF ON EMERGENCY CALLS

Continental Telephone Company of Maine has filed with the Public Utilities Commission a new tariff that would give refunds to its customers that have to pay a toll charge to call emergency services, such as fire, police or rescue squads.

W. O. Houman, President of Continental Telephone of Maine stated "the company took this action so our customers served by an exchange other than the town they live in would get full emergency service without cost. We believe such a service will be in the best public interest."

The company filing requires the customer to draw to the attention of the business office calls made to emergency numbers during the month. The customer serving representative will arrange a credit immediately and inform the customer the amount to subtract from his bill.

The filing is subject to the approval of the Public Utilities Commission of Maine and will be effective Dec. 19 unless the Commission feels hearings are necessary.

LIONS CLUB NOTES

The Bethel Lions Club has a new meeting place—the American Legion Hall on Vernon Street. The Club meets the first and third Tuesdays of each month, enjoying excellent meals cooked by the Legion Auxiliary.

The Sight Chairman has placed collection boxes for used eyeglasses and hearing aids at the following locations: Casco Bank, IGA, Bethel Post Office, Clukey's Pharmacy, Charlie's Chevron, Bethel City Center, Hathaway's Store, Brooks Bros. Hardware and Charlie's Place. Don't throw unwanted glasses and hearing aids away—place them in the Collection Boxes. All glasses collected are fixed if possible and sent to areas of the world that need them. Last year over 300 pair of eyeglasses were collected in the Bethel Area and sent to Lions International where they were typed, cleaned, polished and put into proper frames. The eyeglasses turned in from the State of Maine last year (over 10,000 pair) were sent to areas of Pakistan to be distributed by Lions International Eye Clinics.

This year's eyeglasses from the State of Maine will be sent to various parts of India. The Bethel Lions Club truly appreciates your contributions to this cause.

The Lions Club is busy planning a Children's Christmas Party complete with gifts and Santa Claus.

All Bethel members are active in traveling to other clubs this fall, partaking of fellowship and exchanges of ideas. Preliminary plans are being formulated for Mollycodd Day 1978, checking on bands and game booths and concessions. The date is set for July 15, 1978. More to come as the season progresses.

The Bethel Lions Club welcomes all who are interested in serving their community to visit us at one of our meetings. Please call King Lion Eldon Greenleaf at 824-2580 or 824-2100 for the date and time of meetings.

Members of your community's Lions Club are truly "People Caring for People".

"REFLECTIONS" ON EXHIBIT AT BETHEL LIBRARY

During the month of November, "Reflections", an exhibition of paintings by Robert Paine Grose will be on display at the Bethel Library. The exhibit is sponsored by the Tributary Arts Council with the support of the Maine Commission of the Arts and Humanities.

Mr. Grose has the distinction of having sold his work to collectors in every state except Alaska and Hawaii. His work is in the collection of many notable personal collections both in America and Europe. He specializes in water colors and his one man show of "Dixfield Heritage" has won wide acclaim. This collection is of old churches, town halls, library and private residences and farms. It records a way of life of lost dreams, hopes and places which the present generation will never see as a reality as they are being demolished rapidly.

The watercolors of R. Grose have been exhibited at the Milwaukee Arts Center, The Greenwich Village Arts Festival in New York, The Chicago Art Show, The New York City Art Show, The Walter Chrysler Museum, The Farnsworth Museum, The Rollins Museum and Gallery, The Berkshire Gallery as well as many Art Shows in North Carolina, Sullivan, Ill., Newark, N. J., and Providence, R. I.

Mr. Grose was educated at The Portland School of Fine and Applied Arts, New York University and a graduate of the Trafton School of Design in New York. His private lessons came from Richard Burns, noted American Designer and Woodman Thompson.

FIREWOOD AND THE WOOLLOT

Do you own a woodlot and want to cut firewood for next winter? Have you been cutting firewood, but sometimes wonder whether the way you are cutting promotes good forest management? If so, good, "in the field" advice and instruction is available to you and all small woodlot owners within Oxford County.

The Maine Audubon Society is sponsoring a firewood specialist to assist the landowner in selecting proper trees for non-commercial firewood production, as well as sound, over-all forest management. It is possible to supply yourself with firewood for many years and to improve your woodlot simultaneously.

Good forestry practice involves being able to discriminate and accurately predict what the forest will yield in commercial timber products such as veneer logs, lumber, boltwood, pulpwood and firewood. Apathy, neglect, or careless cutting practices shortchange the landowner and can leave him with an inadequate supply of fuelwood for the future. One-half of the principle of forestry deals with the "now" (present) generation; the other half involves allowing the future generations to inherit a fair share of the land's bounty.

Interest persons can apply for assistance now by contacting: Maine Audubon Society, 118 Old Route One, Falmouth, Maine 04105, or by calling 781-2330.

Some of the stars Mr. Grose directed have been Gloria Swanson, Betty Grable, Richard Thomas of "The Waltons", Abe Vigoda of "Fish", Vincent Price, Joan Caulfield, the Academy Award Winner, Gloria Graham, Jack Carson, Gypsy Rose Lee, Margaret O'Brien, Karen Morrow, Dena Dietrich, Marie Wilson, Thomas Mitchell of "Gone With The Wind" and many more. He was associated with the New York production of Camelot, My Fair Lady, Cut of the Ax, Two For The Seesaw, Funny Lady and others. His last directing assignment was The Camelions with Lillian Roth (I'll Cry Tomorrow).

Mr. Grose returned to Maine two years ago and along with Ruth Francis and G. Beryl Ouellette founded the Tributary Arts Council and its eight units.

WEST BETHEL CHILDREN'S CENTER

This week at the Center the children are busy in the house-keeping area family role playing, having puppet shows, making walnut boats, cutting and pasting different shapes and paper, drawing saltwater pictures, and using the water table. Every day before activity time each child gets to choose what it is they would like to do. After they finish one project they are free to go on to something else. This way they are exposed to a wide variety of learning experiences.

Our star of the week is Darren Felzel.

For our field trip this week we're all going to walk out back of the Center and have Jim Brown show us the pump house. Many of the children have been curious about what's inside.

The Center will be closed this Friday in observance of Veterans' Day.

Greenwood City

Mrs. Collette Morgan, Corres.

This morning was the "haze on the far horizon, the infinite tender sky." It will always come back to me as I saw it then, extending away across our valley rolling in waves beneath the blue of the sky.

These have been days of warmth, days of autumn sunshine. The leaves are all down at last, except those of the oaks and beeches. Even my weeping willow has at last conceded that it is no longer summer.

But I thought about it so much last summer, that I went for a forest hike across the side of Noyes Mountain. Large areas beneath the trees were ankle deep with the fallen leaves. I had no fixed purpose, but I wandered as if lost. I walked through shady groves and crossed cool brooklets. Meanwhile I continued up the hill. I met nothing living except the trees and ferns. Boulders swelled up from the turf like gray puff balls across the shifting landscape.

There was a sense of mystery in the silence of the woods. I felt suddenly as if I were intruding upon a place not meant for me. The trees seemed to wait for me to get by. But I sat to listen. I thoroughly enjoyed the silence and looked at a large oak. Its shadow was sprawling, thin and sketchy, verifying the skeleton which cast it.

I moved on and as I paused to study a group of particularly dead looking trees; out of their tops flew a crow. I wondered if he planned to winter in New England. The warm, living black shape, flapped, then settled in the thickets beyond. I was glad to see him as he was the first sign of life today.

The forest still closed around me. I paused beside a stump, green with moss then stole with noiseless footfalls for a space along a mossy trail. Moss is Nature's great silencer.

I turned right, here, to get to where I could see the water. Like a string of sapphires lost in the wilderness the ponds gleamed with cool, blue light in our valley forests. I stood for a time and watched the scene of beauty then turned toward home.

At the top of a gentle rise ahead on a low rock, a red squirrel was sunning himself while I watched, he lifted his head, then seemed to doze. I continued to watch for he had not seen me. Finally, he stretched then scratched himself behind a foreleg. His fur was shiny and sleek. He was making the best of these hours of sunshine and well-being, these days of autumn warmth. As I moved, he did, too.

It had been a delightful hour. The pond at home was still a mirror and the reflections undisturbed. I continued admiring it for some minutes before going inside.

"The outdoors is a wide expanse of mountains, lakes and trees. A world that's filled with lovely things. That hearts of gladness see. No wall or fence to shut you in. You wander where you will. Surrounded by the great outdoors Where you are master still."

Garnett Ann Schultz

TWO TELSTAR GIRLS HAVE TRIP TO RED SOX GAME

Julie Martin and Brenda Cushing, both of Bryant Pond, were guests of the Boston Red Sox this summer in Fenway Park. Julie and Brenda received free passes for their unique hobby of writing poetry about the team members and their games. While at Telstar last year their English teacher, Bruce Buckland, took an interest in their writing, and sent over 30 poems from each to the Red Sox organization to see what might develop. Lo and behold, both were invited to Fenway to meet some of the players and to see the Red Sox in action.

A sample of their talent was written by the two girls to show their appreciation to the Red Sox organization.

MY FAVORITE BASEBALL GAME

I woke up that morning
And was ready by six
We got going early
So the traffic was not thick.
We hit the town by ten
And got a first class view
Of Boston and its people
Of places old and new.
We saw all the shops
With the 'Red Sox' everywhere
And with a guy who sold hats
Our secret we did share.
When it got near eleven
We went to see the Sox
Drive by in their cars
To enter their parking lot,
Lee, Doyle, Yastrzemski
Were the faces we did see
And deep down in our hearts
We knew one of them we'd meet.
When it came to half past twelve
We went to the service gate
And then for fifteen minutes
We did excitedly wait.
The next thing I knew
My ticket was in hand
And I was in 'ol Fenway
But all I did was stand.
I looked at the park
Of which I love so dear
And I realized right there
The moment was near.
We walked to the dugout
And saw a man come by
He asked us our names
And I was flying high.
Then came the moment
Where I stepped onto the field
I just could not believe it
It just could not be real.
Dick Bresciana spoke to us
And I made replies
But I couldn't believe
It was happening to I
All of a sudden
Bresciana was off to the field
With him came Luis
It was so unreal!
I shook his hand with pleasure
I talked to him with glee
And all I could think
Was "Is this happening to me?"
Our picture was taken
And I was so scared
And then it was over
This thing I had feared.
Luis fooled with Fergie
And tripped him on the ground
Fergie looked at us
And Luis made his sound.
Tee-hee was his giggle.
It was so neat
And that little act
Was another special treat.
The players went by us
After their practice was done
Meanwhile Dick turned to Carlton
Who to me is number one!
He was much bigger Than I thought he'd be
And then he shook hands
With who, but me!
A photograph was taken
And I was really glad
And later I would think What a trip I'd had!
It was with regret
I stepped into the stands
And I declared right then
I would never wash my hand.
My seat suited me fine
I was just happy to be there
And on mind was the Red Sox
I had no other care.
The game was lost
But there were good plays
And it was terrific
I had a fun day.
The sun shone bright
The game was good
The Sox didn't win
But I'd wished they would.

Dwight Grover has closed his mill for a week through hunting season. He and his wife are staying at their camp on Whitney Pond this week.

Mrs. Pauline Lawrence is working at Hicks Nursing Home in Fryeburg, nights.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gouin visited her mother Sunday. The Hunters' Supper will be served Thursday night, Nov. 10, at the church vestry. The hostesses are Vesta Nelson, Eleanor Smith and Sarah Grover.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Nelson and Little Christa, of Winslow, were visitors at his home here over the week end.

Mrs. Helen Grover joined relatives and friends in Norway Saturday and attended a Stork Shower for Mrs. Peggy Pinkham of Boothbay.

Several of the leading ladies attended Craft and Work Shop at the home of Mrs. Alice Wardwell in Albany Tuesday.

Earl Files and son, Kerry of Portland, visited his mother, Agnes Files, Saturday, also got in some hunting.

The K. of P. and Pythian Sisters will sponsor a hunters breakfast at the church vestry Saturday, Nov. 12, from five until seven.

Mrs. Muri Young of Union, N. H., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Stanwood Nelson for a few weeks.

The Friendly Senior Citizens enjoyed a nice Thanksgiving dinner at the Country Way Wednesday. Fifty attended. Everyone had a good time.

But although the Sox didn't win I really had fun
And always to me
The Sox are number one.
Then the game ended
And I took my time
Leaving the park and people
Who to me had been so kind.
The empty playing field
Was my last view of the park
And I hated to do it
But I had to depart.
The message board read
"The Sox Thank You"
But I should thank them
For all they did do.
I'll never forget
That third day of July
And now that it's over
I want to cry.
All the time I dreamed
All the time I'd planned
Can never be forgotten
Can never be banned.
The third day of July
Will always remain
To me, deep in my heart
As my favorite baseball game.

Sunday River

Mrs. R. M. Fleet, Corres.

The hunting season started well as Jeffrey Yates got his deer before noon the first day.

Alva Morrison had company Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Onofrio called on Julia Fleet Thursday afternoon.

A gray headed, brown and white speckled body and white tail pigeon. It looked strange. I could not see if it had leg bands or not.

Fine weather for a few days but back to rain this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Blake left for the winter in Florida at 8:30 Friday morning.

Lloyd Huntley made two trips to Dr. Wolfe, Lewiston. Root Lawrence drove him one day. His eye is still bad.

Many, many hunters for the first day of hunting. Some went bright and early.

Herbert, Jackie, Betty Stevens had supper with the O'Blenses.

Mr. and Mrs. Root Lawrence, Mrs. Dot Smith, went to the dance at West Summer Saturday night.

Very good crowd, half of the Auburn dance crowd was there except the Herman Cards. Ivan Proctor played in the orchestra.

Our mail man Ivan Proctor found out that he was very special man recently. He was two hours late and every mail box had a woman to inquire what had happened Radiator trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Abbott were busy all day Nov. 6, moving to their new home on Tuell Town Road. Welcome.

Fifty years ago was the big flood. The railroad had a big wash-out at Shelburne, and Gorham, N. H. Joe was a railroad man and sleep was scarce. Time goes right along.

Several from here called on Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Buck the past week in honor of their 50th anniversary.

When I went up Saturday morning to put the flag out, a boy or man was asleep on the hall piazza floor in a sleeping bag. Had large tennis shoes beside him. I didn't rouse him. I just beat it.

Callers at Lawrences, Lloyd Huntley, Charlie Coffin, Phil Williams, Steve Reed, combine man.

Jackie Stevens' pekinese dog that disappeared Oct. 10 was returned home Saturday, Nov. 5.

GILEAD HALLOWEEN PARTY WELL ATTENDED!

Over 50 children and several parents attended the annual Halloween party given by the Gilead Women's Club at the old town hall last Monday evening, Oct. 31.

There was a really great costume parade around the hall and the judges had a very difficult time picking the four winners.

They were: Most Original, Elaine and Christine Coriveau; Funniest, Kathy Tyler; Prettiest, Tim Chapman, and the Scariest, Jane Coriveau. They were each awarded a silver dollar. Special thanks to the three judges, Leon Ferrand, Georgia McArthur, and David Taylor. All those who dressed up were great!

Next the "horrible horror house" opened up with Old Big Foot himself inside, along with cobwebs and spiders hanging all over, chains rattling, skeletons, bats squeaking, ghosts grabbing you and a scary ramp to walk up and down. This was said to be the scariest horror house so far. This ran most of the evening and the Club wants to thank the ones who helped to decorate and run this popular event. They are (Old Big Foot himself) David Taylor, Bobby Taylor, Jody Gaudreau, Gary Carter, Michael Taylor, Willie Gaudreau, Adrien Morin, and Roger Coriveau, also thanks to Len Chapman, who was in charge of horror house, for all her ideas!

The games ran all evening with ring toss, bobbing for apples, bean bag game, milk bottle, clothes pin game, and two pin the tail on the cat games. Thanks to Lori Sanford and Debbie Gaudreau for helping run the games.

Refreshments were served and enjoyed by all. It was soon time to leave and each child received a large box of candy as they left with smiles. The Women's Club wishes to thank everyone who donated candy, either or baked for the party. A special thanks to all those who helped clean the hall, decorate and cleaned up after.

Thanks to Leon Ferrand for setting up the lighting and to Dave and Bobby Taylor for setting up the horrible sounds for the haunted house. See you all next year! Thanks again!

YOUR BACK & YOUR HEALTH

Dr. Stephen Garbarini, D.O.

How to check for curvature of spine. If you've ever grown trees, you know how essential it is in the early stages to start the seedling growing straight. Tying the young plant to stakes can give it a good beginning and keep it from bending.

In the very real sense, much of the same philosophy applies to raising children. All of us hope that our off-spring will grow up straight and healthy, but we usually don't know if we're doing a good job of it.

One of the dangers is that the bruise or back pain in childhood may go away in a day or so, only to return years later in a different and more severe form.

Scoliosis, or curvature of the spine, is one condition that should be attended to as soon as possible. And here's how you can test for it in your child. Have the child bend straight forward from the waist, head level with the back and arms hanging loosely. Look closely at the muscles on both sides of the spine. If the muscles "bunch" up on one side, the strong possibility of scoliosis is present.

To make sure, schedule an examination for your child with a doctor of chiropractic. If curvature is not present, your mind will be relieved. But if there is scoliosis your chiropractor can immediately start a program aimed at correcting the condition.

Like almost anything else back problems are more easily and effectively handled when they are discovered early.

Allan Murphy, Eleanor LeCompte and Virginia Williamson attended the public hearing at Concord in regard to mining diatomaceous earth in Umbagog Lake. A continuation will be held in Berlin, N. H., on Nov. 17 at 8:30 in the Berlin City Hall. Mr. Yoffee and Mr. Fuller on trying to obtain permission to test mine for one or two days in anticipation of a 30 year project. They would locate near Big Island rather than the Potter Farm Location previously considered. Most of the organizations and individuals attending the meeting were against the project. There is much to be considered as the impact will be felt far beyond the borders of this lake and to consider how important this diatomaceous earth is to the nation, whether there is a better or as good supply elsewhere or a substitute, whether the irreversible change in the lake and area and in the lives of people affected by it will justify the project. Individuals have weak voices in comparison to large organizations but many weak voices together can be heard clearly. In view of history things have been done by thoughtful people which seemed best but have not proved to be so. It is impossible to see the whole picture of this issue, but there are many from far and near who are doing their best to bring about a decision which will be the most beneficial now and in the future as they see it and the rest are thinking, listening and reading further before taking a firm stand.

Several attended the hunters' supper in Errol. A hunters' supper is planned for Nov. 19 in Upton by Andy Aron Sr. who is on committee appointed by the Community Club to raise money for a continuous scholarship fund. Each is being asked to donate a salad and a dessert to go with the beef stew. A trailer truck loaded with sawn lumber tipped completely over in Mother Walker Falls on Friday.

Several people are having colds and respiratory discomfort. The grapevine reports that a group of men were caught jumping from windows when the camp owners arrived. As these owners had their rifles with them were able to hold the trespassers until the authorities came. Although the media on radio reports that crime in Maine is only in the beginning stage, at the rate it's grown in Upton, there may not be anyone able to stay here 30 years hence. It is an issue I wish some wise heads would come up with some constructive pursuits. Perhaps the State Police would locate one on the force in town and this would have a happy effect. Many letters to headquarters might start them thinking at least and they may at least give better coverage.

The Woodstock Alumni met at the home of Alice Hoyt Thursday, Nov. 4 with seven member present. The Senior Citizens dinner for December was planned.

NEW EDITION OF MAINE ROAD ATLAS READY FOR DISTRIBUTION

A new edition of the Maine Road Atlas is off the press and being distributed by the Maine Department of Transportation. Department personnel updated all principal roads since the last issue in 1975.

The larger edition of the atlas, which measures 18 1/2 by 24 1/2 inches, contains 108 pages of maps covering all 16 counties, plus other maps, charts and tables. The number of sheets to cover a county varies from one for the smaller counties to several sheets for larger counties.

A smaller version of the atlas contains the same array of maps and information on smaller size sheets and measures 12 1/2 by 16 1/2 inches.

Individual county maps are drawn in large scale and show all public highways as well as such features as private roads, homes, farms, rivers, lakes, mountains, airports, parks and nearly 100 other details from bird sanctuaries to industrial plants.

Included in the atlas are hundreds of large scale maps of congested areas where buildings are too close together to fit on the regular county sheet.

The public may purchase the atlas by writing the Maine Department of Transportation Division of Special Services, Transportation Building, Augusta, Maine 04333.

The cost of either the large or small version of the atlas is $6.00.

PARENTS NIGHT HELD AT LOCKE MILLS SCHOOL

Parents Night at the Locke Mills Elementary School, Wednesday, Nov. 2, attracted over 50 mothers and fathers to learn for themselves just what their five, six, and seven-year-old children were doing during their school day.

They learned that it was a busy day with first graders studying math, social studies, science, reading, learning how letters and/or numbers may be put together to solve the problem of what is it or how much is it. Little problems, maybe, but the building blocks of knowledge to solve bigger and more complex problems as each year of school goes by.

New systems in some study courses are being implemented so that a continuity of subject material will be available as a student advances from one grade to another. Weaknesses which were shown to exist in some subjects throughout the school system, have been the immediate concern and these areas are being strengthened with new material and as time and money permit, complete new systems will be installed.

Two films were shown, one on reading and the other, The Legend of Patch, The Pony. Both in their own way, were not only instructional, but interesting.

Parents night concluded with refreshments of cider and doughnuts.

MRS. BARTH NAMED VICE CHAIRMAN OF MAINE DENTAL HEALTH COUNCIL

Dale A. Douglass, principal of the Hermon Elementary School, has been named chairman of the Maine Dental Health Council. He replaces Mrs. Miriam Cohen, Eastport, whose term had expired. Jane G. Barth, a dental hygienist, from Bethel, was named vice chairman.

The nine-member council, appointed by Human Services Commissioner David E. Smith, serves as a citizen advisory panel to the department's Office of Dental Health. It was created two years ago when the legislature set up the office and launched a statewide program to improve children's dental health.

The council also serves as a forum for public discussions on dental health problems in the state and ways state government can aid in the developing and funding of local dental health care and education projects.

SOCIAL SECURITY ALERTS CHAMPUS BENEFICIARIES

The Social Security Administration has established a special Medicare enrollment period for CHAMPUS beneficiaries because of a recent Department of Defense ruling.

Beginning Jan. 1, 1978, CHAMPUS (civilian health and medical program of the uniformed services) no longer covers beneficiaries who are entitled to Medicare hospital insurance.

Many CHAMPUS beneficiaries entitled to Medicare hospital insurance haven't signed up for Medicare medical insurance because their CHAMPUS coverage gave them similar protection. But when their CHAMPUS coverage ends in January, these people will be without medical insurance protection unless they sign up now for Medicare medical insurance.

The special enrollment period runs from Oct. 1 through Dec. 31, 1977, and gives CHAMPUS beneficiaries the opportunity to sign up for Medicare medical insurance before their CHAMPUS coverage ends.

All CHAMPUS beneficiaries who now have Medicare hospital insurance but have not enrolled in Medicare medical insurance should contact any social security office during this period.

For those who enroll before the end of the year, Medicare medical insurance protection begins on Jan. 1, when their CHAMPUS coverage ends. Thus, they will have continuous medical insurance protection.

CHAMPUS beneficiaries who don't sign up for Medicare medical insurance during this special enrollment period can enroll later in a regular Medicare enrollment period—the first three months of each year. But they will lose several months of valuable insurance protection because Medicare medical coverage cannot begin until July of the year they enroll.
